

Dropping Courses with 'DNC' Grading

'DNC' stands for 'did not complete.' Courses dropped now will receive a grade of 'DNC' which does appear on your transcript, but it does not affect your GPA. Learn more about Seneca's Grading Policy.

Things to consider before dropping a course:

Talk with your professor
They are often able to provide tips/strategies to be successful in the course.

Explore services & supports
Use resources through the Learning Centre or Seneca Libraries

Will dropping a course affect any applicable funding, or your visa/permit?
You can reach out to The Service Hub for more info.

How will dropping a course affect your academic progress?
Talk to your Student Adviser for more info.

Follow these steps to drop a course:

1. Download the Timetable Change form
2. Complete the form and have it signed by your Program Coordinator/Student Adviser (if required)
3. Email the completed form to The Service Hub (theservicehub@senecacollege.ca)

For the DNC Deadline, see Important Academic Dates