

Language of Instruction

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to confirm that the language of instruction and assessment at Seneca Polytechnic is English.

All programs and courses are delivered in English, except where a course is specifically designed for the instruction of a non-English language, in which case the language of instruction corresponds to the subject matter of the course.

Should you require additional information, please contact the Office of the Registrar at theservicehub@senecapolytechnic.ca.
