

Student Under 18 Years of Age Waiver for Police Reference Check

Background

Seneca’s School of Early Childhood Education program requires all students to present a cleared Police Reference Check with Vulnerable Sector Screening (VSS) prior to beginning a field placement. According to the Child Care and Early Years Act, 2014, criminal reference checks are required for all students and volunteers having direct contact with children. The Police Reference Check must be dated within six (6) months of the start of field placement. However, student under 18 years of age are exempted according to the Child Care Licensing Manual page 245.

Subsection 8.5 - Exceptions, individuals under 19 years of age
