

ECE students attend exhibition and atelier on Italian childcare research courtesy of Seneca Alumni

Published 3/29/2023 by Danielle Latanskiy

Over 300 Early Childhood Education students attended the Mosaic of Marks, Words, Material Exhibition and Atelier in March at Bishop Strachan School in Toronto. The exhibit showcases research done in Reggio Emilia's infant-toddler centres and preschools on mark making and drawing woven with narrative.

Students were engaged in meaningful conversations about children's voices and rights, relationships, materials and documentation.

The Seneca Alumni Affinity Program's student experience fund sponsored the trip.

tags : seneca-alumni