

Celebrating student achievements at the Student Leadership Awards

Published 4/19/2023 by Katherine Apostolou

The first in-person Student Leadership Awards since 2019 took place on Tuesday, April 18. The financial awards were presented to 27 students in recognition of their leadership skills on campus, in the classroom and in their local community. Attendees included nominees, donors and employees.

Highlights included Bernardo Morais being awarded the W.T. Newnham Leadership Award for his outstanding leadership in creating a safe space for the 2SLGBTQ+ community on and off campus.

Explore the different ways you can enhance your time at Seneca.

tags : student-news