

Seneca Polytechnic and World Citi Colleges sign MOU

Published 5/12/2023 by Kelly Mathews

Seneca Polytechnic and World Citi Colleges (WCC) have formalized a partnership through a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) signing ceremony held on Monday, May 8, 2023 at the WCC Quezon City Campus in Metro Manila, Philippines.

The signing ceremony marks a significant milestone in the efforts of both institutions to provide students with world-class education and opportunities in the fields of tourism, hospitality, nursing and aviation. President David Agnew was present and signed the MOU.

The partnership will facilitate faculty and student exchange, research and cultural immersion programs — benefiting stakeholders from both institutions. The MOU signing was witnessed by Guy Boileau, Senior Trade Commissioner and Commercial Counsellor of the Canadian Embassy.

Also present during the event were Renata D’Innocenzo, Vice-President, Strategy and Brand, Nick Huang, Director, Regional Business Development and Hana Jung, Business Development Manager of East & South-East Asia, Seneca International, and Angel Cachuela, Trade Commissioner of the Canadian Embassy, WCC executives, faculty, deans and department heads.

□

tags : student-news