Seneca celebrates diversity and inclusion

Join us on Thursday, June 1 as we kick off our Pride Month celebrations in support of our 2SLGBTQ+ community.

Thursday June 1:

- 10 a.m.: Pride Flag raising outside Building A
- 10:20 a.m.: Jada Shada Hudson speaks at Newnham Campus in Room A3065
- 11 a.m. to noon: Student panel with Jada Shada Hudson at Newnham Campus in Room A3065

Monday, June 12:

In Conversation with CTV News Channel anchor, Todd van der Heyden

Attend the live broadcast in person on Monday, June 12 at 4 p.m. at Newnham Campus in Room K2100A or join the live stream.

Tuesday, June 13:

PRIDE Seneca Readers Unite! Seneca's avid readers will join the Rainbow Hangout to discuss Aristotle and Dante Discover the Secrets of the Universe by Benjamin Alire Saenz. This will take place at Newnham Campus in Room D2014 across from the Service Hub from 6 to 8 p.m.

We hope to see you there!

tags : student-news