

Support National Pollinator Week with Seneca's Honey Sale

Published 5/29/2023 by Katherine Apostolou

It's officially honey season! National Pollinator Week takes place June 19 to June 25 to raise awareness about the importance of pollinators and their preservation. Seneca's King, Newnham and Peterborough campuses are home to several beehives. In support of this year's event, Seneca's Office of Sustainability is having a Seneca Honey Sale, featuring our very own pure, unpasteurized wildflower honey. The Honey Sale will be held on Monday, June 19 from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Computer Commons, Newnham Campus.

The following size jars will be available:

- 45 g for $3
- 190 ml for $8
- 500 g for $12
- 1 kg for $18

Payments can also be made via e-transfer.
