

Attend the Green Citizen Symposium

Published 11/1/2023 by Stephanie Conte

Join the movement for climate action and be part of the Green Citizen Symposium, a three-day online event where ideas turn into action. Gather virtually from Tuesday, Nov. 7 to Thursday, Nov. 9, with innovators, business trailblazers, award-winning authors and esteemed professors as they share their experience and insights in tackling global challenges.

This year's symposium centers around the theme of "Collaborate for Climate Action." By fostering collaboration, partnership and innovation at various levels across different sectors, we have the power to create meaningful impact and drive positive change.
