Published 11/8/2023 by Shona Dias

Who can attend the Fair?	The fair is open to all Seneca Polytechnic International students, their friends, and family members.
What should I bring to the International Student Support Fair?	We advise you to come prepared with essentials such as a notebook and pen so that you can jot down notes during presentations.
How can I prepare for the International Student Support Fair?	Be sure to review the International Student Support Fair website . Review the list of service providers both at Seneca and within the community. Make a list of questions you may want to ask these providers that are based on your personal needs. Here are some examples of questions you may want to ask.
Who will be at the fair?	Along with other international students, Seneca staff, services and external agencies will be attending. You can access the list of participants and services through this link .
Can I invite friends or family members to the International Student Support Fair?	Absolutely, feel free to bring along friends or family who might benefit from the resources and information available.
Is there a dress code for the event?	Although a formal dress code is not required, dressing comfortably and professionally is encouraged. If you plan to attend the LinkedIn Headshot session, then professional attire is recommended. Take advantage of this perfect opportunity to look your best!
Is there a registration requirement for the LinkedIn Headshot session, or are walk-ins allowed?	Registration is not required, however, please be aware that photos will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, so arrive early.
How can I prepare for the LinkedIn Headshot session?	We recommend dressing as professionally as possible. Remember, this headshot will appear on your LinkedIn profile, so dressing appropriately is very important. You can always visit Career Threads (Room D2337 at Newnham Campus) prior to the event to attain professional clothing for free!
Am I allowed to attend multiple sessions and presentations?	Absolutely! Feel free to join as many sessions and explore booths that align with your interests and needs during the event.
How can I connect with fellow international students at the fair?	The event offers a fantastic opportunity to meet and network with other international students and staff. Do not hesitate to strike up conversations, exchange contact information, and build connections.
How can I stay updated about future events and services for international students?	Stay connected with Seneca Polytechnic's international student services social media channels for updates on upcoming events and services as well as the International Student Support site.
How many items can I take from the gently-used winter jacket/clothing give-a-way?	Students who registered for the event are allowed one gently-used winter jacket and one other piece of winter clothing for free.
Will there be enough gently-used winter jackets/clothing for everyone who registers?	All gently-used winter jacket/clothing are available to students on a first-come, first-served basis. This section will close once we run out of items to give-a-way. We encourage students to arrive early.
