

National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women – Dec. 6

Published 11/23/2023 by Stephanie Conte

On Wednesday, Dec. 6 from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Innovation Gallery, Building K, Newnham Campus, all are invited to attend a vigil held to remember the 14 young women whose lives were lost during the École Polytechnique massacre on December 6, 1989. The vigil will highlight community healing after gender-based violence and the importance of community care. Attendees will have the opportunity to listen to guest speakers and much more.
