Accessible Learning Services

Our services are free, confidential and voluntary for all registered Seneca students. Students must self-identify in order to access services.

Accessible Learning Services (ALS) provides access to academic accommodations, assistive technology and other accessible learning services for students with disabilities. Our goal is to provide equal opportunities for our Seneca students to achieve academic success.

Our Vision:

An accessible student-centred and universally designed educational experience that fosters full and active participation of students with disabilities.

Our Mission:

Facilitates access to education through accommodations, education, consultation, and support.

Our Core Values:

ALS Services will meet your individual needs, are collaborative and are non-judgmental
