An Ultra-Affordable Airline for Canadians

Be Part of the Changing Canadian Skies

We understand the challenges of air travel in Canada because we've lived them. As a proudly Canadian airline, we've embarked on a mission to make flights affordable every day with a customer-focused flying experience, giving you the freedom to explore this vast and beautiful country without breaking the bank.

Headquartered in Calgary, Lynx Air is not just about being the lowest-cost airline — it's about providing competitive compensation to our hardworking team. We believe in fair pay and offer a comprehensive health & travel benefits program to our employees.

Soaring Together

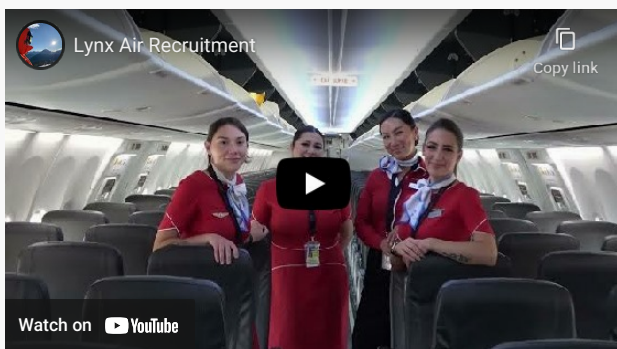

We're not just an airline; we're a movement. Our goal is to bring affordable air travel to all Canadians. Whether you're a frequent flyer or dreaming of exploring new horizons, we invite you to join us in creating a new era of fair, friendly, and frequent flights. Be part of the journey – be the wind beneath our wings at Lynx Air.
