Finlayson Hospitality Partners (FHPI) is a franchisee for McDonald's Restaurant of Canada.

Finlayson Hospitality Partners is owned by Marcia who started her McDonald's career in 1976 as a Crew person while attending secondary school and continued with McDonald's in the London, Ontario market upon graduation from the University of Western Ontario. For over 25 years, Marcia worked corporately in many areas of the company including marketing, public relations, supply chain, and strategic alignment.

In 2008 Marcia realized her long-term goal of becoming a McDonald's Owner/Operator starting with 3 locations in Markham, Ontario. Since 2008 Finlayson Hospitality Partners has grown to 7 locations operating in Markham, Richmond Hill, and Stouffville with over 400 team members.

Finlayson Hospitality Partners prides itself on being a People First organization with a strong focus on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

The organization has a strong reputation in the community for offering great career opportunities to local and international graduates.

For international students, Finlayson Hospitality Partners offers assistance in pursuing permanent residence status and is well versed in the national and provincial immigration processes.
