ACCESSIBLE LEARNING SERVICES

ALS: Student Guide

This position is exclusively for enrolled, active Seneca students and is posted each semester through the Seneca Works Career Portal.

As an ALS Student Guide, you'll have the opportunity to create and lead peer-to-peer workshops for students registered with Accessible Learning Services (ALS). In this role, you'll assist fellow students in navigating the self-serve student portal, supporting them with tasks like registration, document uploads, and appointment bookings. Additionally, you'll be integral in developing and implementing peer resources that promote accessibility and engagement within the ALS department.

This role provides valuable experience in peer development, facilitation, and administration, while offering a meaningful way to contribute to the Seneca community. It's an ideal opportunity for students interested in leadership development and making a positive impact on their peers' educational experiences.

Applications are currently closed for this role. Please check back in Summer 2025.
