ALS: Student Support Guide

This position is posted each semester through the Seneca Works Career Portal.

ALS Student Guides are students from all Seneca programs who are interested in and/or have experience with facilitation, peer development, administration and office supports and customer engagement. The ALS Student Support Guides support department front line work, as well as, facilitate and lead Peer to Peer wellness and accessibility workshops and events. This group also works on special projects such as web development and virtual promotions for ALS.

This position is a great opportunity for any student who is interested in developing their leadership knowledge and practice while making a positive contribution to their Seneca Community.
