Seneca Business students triumph at 2024 HRPA Provincial Case Competition

Published 3/26/2024 by Sheila Murithi

Students from Seneca Polytechnic's Human Resources Management, Honours Bachelor of Commerce – Human Resources Management and Business Administration – Human Resources programs secured top positions in the 2024 Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA) Provincial Case Competition, clinching first and third places respectively.

Following an intensive 15-week preparation period, the two groups outperformed 25 universities and colleges teams. These achievements mark a historic milestone for Seneca Business Human Resource (HR) program teams, boasting the highest number of victories in provincial HR competitions to date.

Congratulations to the teams, we are #SenecaProud of you!
