

David R.

Published 10/5/2021 by Gerald Encabo

What do you teach at Seneca?

At Seneca, I teach HTM299 Career Strategies

What is your favourite thing about what you teach?

My most favourite thing about teaching is assisting the students through the process of building their professional E-portfolio and preparing them for their entry into the hospitality and tourism work force.

What were some of your experiences before teaching at Seneca?

I studied in the United States. I have experience in Luxury Hotel and Resort Management. I also have experience in food, beverage and room operations.

What is your favourite destination or activity that relates to tourism?

My favourite destination is Charleston, South Carolina. I love Food, Culture, History and the Ocean tags : faculty