

Join the movement: You're invited to attend the 2024 Green Citizen Symposium

Published 8 days ago by Paula Echeveste Petrone

Join the movement for climate action and be part of the Green Citizen Symposium, a three-day online event where ideas turn into action. Gather virtually from Tuesday, Nov. 5 to Thursday, Nov. 7. Over three inspiring days, our speakers will delve into crucial subjects such as:

- The future of renewable energy and policy making
- The use of AI for sustainable development
- Sustainable finance
- Community-based conservation work
- Digital innovations for sustainability

This year's theme, "Thrive and Transform: A Resilient Journey," focuses on empowering individuals and communities to adapt and flourish amidst ecological changes.

All members of the Seneca community are welcome to register for any of the six sessions. Each session is built with a keynote and a workshop; we encourage you to participate in both as they have the same topic, but it is possible to participate separately. Attendance is free, but space is limited. Reserve your spot today!

Curious about aligning your career with sustainability? Join us at the sustainability networking event on Tuesday, Nov. 12 from 6 to 8:30 p.m. where you can connect with industry leaders and uncover pathways for an impactful career. The networking event will be held at TD Conference Centre, located in downtown Toronto at 55 King St. W., Ontario, in the Taiga Room.
