Conference Details:

Leadership in Focus: Industry Essentials

Tuesday, Feb. 25

The Great Hall, Newnham Campus

*Please note that registration for the conference is now closed.*

The Winter 2025 conference focuses on career readiness and leadership development through interactive experiences and sessions from various experts. Students will engage in experiential learning to build essential human skills and gain industry-relevant knowledge, preparing them to excel in today's workforce. Students will explore leadership, networking, teamwork, problem-solving, and effective communication. In collaboration with Seneca Works, participants will build connections, learn practical tools, and explore AI to enhance their leadership capabilities and career readiness.

Through a series of interactive activities, and group discussions, students will gain knowledge, experience, and opportunities to expand their leadership and networking skills. Click here to learn more about the benefits of attending the Leadership Conference.
