If you are at risk of immediate harm, call 911. For assistance in emergencies on campus call Security at 416-764-0911.

If this is not an immediate emergency, consider the following housing options:

- Have you considered a short-term stay through 4Stay or a hotel?
- Do you have any friends or relatives where you can stay temporarily?
- Have you considered a shelter? Shelters provide temporary accommodation and services. Seneca's Housing team can explore shelter housing options with you or visit this resource for more information.
- Call 311. A Toronto resource that provides easy access to non-emergency City services, programs and information 24 hours a day, seven days a week. 311 can offer assistance in more than 180 languages. For York Region services, call 1-877-464-9675.

Connect with Seneca's Housing team for support. Please email The Service Hub for assistance or book a one-on-one housing advisement appointment by logging in to The Service Hub and booking an appointment.

Visit Seneca's Housing Hub for more housing resources or to learn about other 24/7 community resources visit the Personal Counselling website.
