

Seneca Polytechnic commemorates Transgender Awareness Week 2024

Published 6 days ago by Ran Luo

November 13 to 19 each year marks Transgender Awareness Week, a time to promote trans visibility, celebrate the lives of trans people while highlighting the challenges the trans communities continue to face.

Seneca Polytechnic is committed to challenging the marginalization and violence that transgender, non-binary, Two-Spirit and gender diverse communities experience.

We invite you to join us in person for this year's Transgender Awareness Week activities at Seneca, starting with the opening event on Wednesday, Nov. 13 featuring The Epic Choir, Toronto's first collective for trans, non-binary, Two-Spirit and gender-queer singers:

Embodying Transgender Community and Joy with The Epic Choir

Wednesday, Nov. 13 | 11 a.m. to noon

The Meeting Place, Level 3, Building K (CITE), Newnham Campus

Transgender Day of Remembrance: Honouring Transgender Lives, Dreaming of Transgender Futures

Wednesday, Nov. 20 | 11 a.m. to noon

The Meeting Place, Level 3, Building K (CITE), Newnham Campus

Collage Night with Seneca Pride

Thursday, Nov. 21 | 4 to 6 p.m. New date

Room K2001, Building K (CITE), Newnham Campus

Details about the events and more are available in the Transgender Awareness Week \(senecapolytechnic.ca\) space.

tags : student-news