

Closing Keynote: Natalie Royer

Published 10 days ago by Shanna Macinnes

We are excited to share that Seneca alum Natalie Royer will be providing our closing keynote for the Winter 2025 Student Leadership Conference.

Natalie is a dynamic consultant, keynote speaker, and coach who transforms workplaces through actionable strategies that foster connection and inclusivity. She is a Seneca Alum from Early Childhood Education and taught at Seneca for eight years. As the founding member of Saroy Group Inc., Natalie brings over a decade of experience in education, corporate culture, and leadership development. She holds an M.A. from Toronto Metropolitan University, a Certificate in Psychological Health and Safety in the Workplace from York University and advanced training in coaching and mentoring from the Schulich School of Business.

