

Seneca Polytechnic launches new opticianry lab through gift from HOYA Vision Care

Published 4/22/2025 by Ryan Flanagan

Opticianry students at Seneca Polytechnic now have access to a cutting-edge optical laboratory, thanks to a new gift from HOYA Vision Care.

The new HOYA Vision Care Eyeglass Dispensing Lab at Seneca's Newnham Campus replicates a high-end retail optical dispensing and vision-testing environment. This immersive learning space allows students to develop their skills in a setting that prepares them for success through hands-on experiential learning.
