

Fire Protection Fundamentals

Version 3

Published 8/6/2025 by Holly Werda Last updated 8/27/2025 6:55 PM by Holly Werda

This course provides students an overview of the fire protection industry. The history of fire protection, the fire problem in North America and fire behaviour will be studied. Career opportunities in fire protection and related fields will be examined and basic terms and knowledge related to these careers will be provided.

College Course (Ministry Code)	FPF190 NDC (TCR4T)
Start/End Dates	October 2, 2025 to December 18, 2025
Class Day/Time	Thursday from 3:20 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
Location/delivery	Newnham Campus in-person
School Board Partnerships	DPCDSB, PDSB, TCDSB, TDSB, YCDSB, YRDSB
Specialist High Skills Major (SHSM) Sectors	Construction, Justice, Community Safety, and Emergency Services
Course Outline	Fire Protection Fundamentals
Pathways to the full-time Seneca programs	• Fire Protection Engineering Technician • Fire Protection Engineering Technology