

Georgia Kandias

Published 10/14/2021 by Gerald Encabo

MBA

After an extensive career in various sectors spanning from the Waste Management industry, Insurance industry, Retail and the Beauty industry, Georgia struck out on her own as the owner of newly opened restaurant in the GTA.

Georgia began her teaching career at Seneca teaching courses in Marketing, Customer Service and Professional Selling. She was then recruited to the School of Hospitality and Tourism for her extensive knowledge in the F&B industry.

Georgia is an Alumni of the Business program at Seneca College and has since completed an MBA with a focus on Global Leadership to compliment her 25 years of business and academic experience.

Georgia continues to consult restaurateurs across the GTA to gain a competitive advantage.

To learn more about Georgia's experience, check out her LinkedIn page.

tags : faculty