

Philip Hamilton

Published 10/14/2021 by Gerald Encabo

Ph.D., PMP, Professor, School of Hospitality and Tourism

Philip has a life-long passion for hospitality and tourism. He has held positions as Assistant Director of a residential summer youth camp and Associate Director of Operations for the AIR MILE Reward Program Customer Care Centre.

Philip has been on faculty with SoHT for several years. He is deeply committed to teaching excellence and investing in every student's development, leveraging his business experience in the classroom.

His doctorate from the University of Toronto is in Linguistics. The importance of Communications in our industry continues to be an area of interest.

To learn more about Philip's experience, check out his LinkedIn profile.

tags : faculty