The Seneca Institution-Funded Special Bursary program offers non-repayable Bursary assistance to help cover your educational costs if you have a low family income. You may be able to get a bursary if you are taking part-time postsecondary courses. The maximum amount of bursary you may receive is $2500. You cannot receive Seneca's Institution-Funded Special Bursary and an OSAP loan through the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) at the same time.

The Seneca Institution-Funded Special Bursary application is available online.

To apply for the Seneca Institution-Funded Special Bursary, you must:

1. Download the Seneca Institution-Funded Special Bursary form \(PDF\).
2. Complete the form electronically using the boxes provided.
 - All items on the application must be completed and supporting documents must be attached if you wish to qualify for the program.
 - It is your responsibility to ensure that the application and supporting documents are submitted before the deadline.
3. Submit your completed form to theservicehub@senecapolytechnic.ca using a valid Seneca email account.
