Ancillary Fees

Compulsory (Essential) Ancillary Fees

Compulsory ancillary fees are mandatory fees that a student is required to pay – in addition to tuition fees – to enrol in or successfully complete any ministry-funded course. These fees are regulated by the Compulsory Ancillary Fee Protocol Committee at Seneca. Once agreed upon and approved, these fees are mandatory and charged to all students unless otherwise stated.

Student Achievement and Records – Convocation

Student ID cards – OneCard

Academic Support – Learning Centre

Academic Support – Academic Technology

Health and Dental Plan (Domestic Students)

Health Insurance (International Students)

Health and Counselling – Health and Wellness

Athletics and Recreation

Student Buildings – Seneca Student Federation (SSF) Build

Student Buildings – Student Sport Build

Peterborough Fees – Fleming College Athletics and Recreation Service

Optional (Non-Essential) Ancillary Fees

These fees are for services not deemed as falling under the ministry criteria as an essential service but add value for students and provide them with additional benefit. Many of these services are associated with those provided by the student government. Students will have the choice to decide if they want to pay for these services.

Students have until the last day to drop courses with a refund to opt out of optional ancillary fees.
