Important: payments made at a Canadian financial institution will take up to five business days to be processed. Online payments can take up to 24 business hours to be processed. Payment can be confirmed in Student Home.

Canadian Students

If you are a Canadian student, you must pay a non-refundable deposit of $200 once in an academic year (September to August).

The $200 non-refundable deposit is required the first time you plan to enrol in an academic year in order to be eligible to enrol in classes.

Please note that full fees for the term are due on the first day of classes.

OSAP Applicants

Students who have applied for student loans (OSAP) must also pay the non-refundable enrolment deposit of $200 to be eligible to enrol in classes. Students must first enrol in classes in order to receive OSAP funding.

International Students

If you are a newly admitted international student starting your first term or a current

To download a copy of your official payment receipt for your study permit application, log into Student Home, and follow the instructions found on the Seneca International website.

Please note that full fees for the term are due on the first day of classes.
