To study or work at Seneca, you have to get here first. Public transit is a great option for all Seneca campuses, and information on this site can help you decide what your best option is.

Students at Seneca have options for getting around once they're here. Our Campus Shuttle provides transportation between four campuses.

Interested in saving money while also reducing your carbon footprint? Check out the Seneca RideShare app. You can also choose to bike to campus, with bike racks available at King, Markham, Newnham and Seneca@York.

Those driving to the campus will have several ways to pay for parking.
