Join us at International Virtual Orientation on Monday, Aug. 14, from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. EDT. This special online event is created specifically to support international students like you.

During this event, you will learn the key information you need to know right now such as preparing to study at Seneca, travelling and arriving in Canada and starting life in Canada.

What you can expect at International Virtual Orientation:

- attend live sessions covering the most relevant topics for international students
- chat with Seneca experts from our many service and support areas
- connect with your peers in fun and interactive activities
