

Native plant seeds harvested on campus to improve wildlife habitats

Published 10/13/2021 by Stephanie Conte

Seeds from hundreds of native plants are being harvested at Newnham Campus, and come next spring, will be offered to Seneca students and employees to help create and restore wildlife habitats in their own neighbourhoods.

Read the full story

tags : feature-stories