

Animation students win big in global contest

Published 11/4/2021 by Stephanie Conte

A team of five students from Seneca's Animation advanced diploma program placed third in the annual 24 HOURS Animation Contest for Students. Seneca was the only Canadian school to place in the top five of this challenge.

Read more about the win

tags : student-news