

New student and lab spaces shaping up at Seneca

Published 11/25/2021 by Stephanie Conte

Virtuoso contractor Mike Holmes would be proud. Seneca has donned its hard hat and has been very busy in recent months renovating dozens of classrooms and spaces with some spectacular results.

More than 100 classrooms across all campuses have been reconfigured for flexible learning, one of the four program and course delivery options offered this fall and winter.

And as Seneca's safe and gradual reopening continues, here's a look at four other renovation projects that are upgrading and expanding learning and teaching spaces for students and faculty.
