

Season 3, Episode 6: Caroline Grammer

Published 2/2/2021 by Stephanie Conte

Host Patrick Perdue sits down with Professor Caroline Grammer from the School of Community Services and the School of Health Sciences. As part of a pilot project with the City of Toronto to address urgent COVID-19 needs, Ms. Grammer is leading a Seneca research team to improve digital access for older adults. She talks about reimagining the system of senior care and shares solutions that de-institutionalize how the elderly are cared for.

Listen to the podcast

tags : podcasts