Register for the Seneca Soup Program

Published 9/9/2022 by Stephanie Conte

The Seneca Soup Program helps ensure all students have access to a healthy meal on campus. Students enrolled in a Seneca program can receive free soup made fresh daily. Halal, vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free options are available.

Students are required to sign up for the program through their OneCard account. More information is available on the Dining Services space.

tags : student-news