

Resources for students

Published 2/1/2022 by Stephanie Conte

At Seneca, we understand that each student is unique. Here's a list of some of the resources available to students who may need support.

SSF Food Bank – monthly service offered to full-time students on a first-come, first-served basis

Seneca Soup Program – all students have access to a free, healthy meal on campus through the program

211.ca – free help to connect you with services in Ontario, including food banks and income support

– offers support to students trying to manage the complexities of college life

Many financial aid resources are also available to Seneca students, including:

- Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards: open to all full-time students
- Renewable Degree Scholarships: based on grades in continuing years of the student's program of study and the student maintaining full-time status
- Work Study Program: for full-time students who demonstrate financial need
- Seneca Institution-Funded Special Bursary: assistance to help cover educational costs, if you have a low family income
- Ontario Student Assistance Program \(OSAP\): Canadian citizens, permanent residents or protected persons are eligible to apply
