

Black historical figures spotlight

Published 2/1/2022 by Stephanie Conte

Every week, the Office of Equity, Diversity & Inclusion will be sharing the biographies of Black individuals who helped shape Canada and continue to make contributions to the country.

This week learn about:

- Mathieu Da Costa
- Senator Anne Clare Cools \(born Aug 12, 1943, in Barbados\)
-
- Viola Irene Desmond \(born July 6, 1914, in Halifax and died February 1965, in New York\)
- The Honourable Lincoln Alexander \(born Jan. 21, 1922, in Toronto and died Oct.19, 2012\)
- Elijah McCoy \(born in 1843/1844 in Colchester, Canada, and died on Oct. 10, 1929, in Michigan\)

Visit the space to learn more about the events taking place throughout February.

tags : student-news