

Be the next student representative on Seneca's Board of Governors

Published 3/9/2022 by Stephanie Conte

Looking for a meaningful way to help build Seneca's future?

Consider putting your name forward for the student representative on Seneca's Board of Governors. This is a great opportunity for you to develop and strengthen your leadership skills.

The deadline to submit your nomination is 6 p.m. on Wednesday, March 16.

If you're interested in this unique leadership opportunity, please read the to learn about eligibility criteria and next steps.

More information is available on the Board of Governors space.

tags : bog-election2022, student-news