RE: Union for academic employees announces a March 18 strike deadline

Today, the union representing full-time and partial-load professors, librarians and counsellors at Ontario's 24 public colleges announced a strike deadline of Friday, March 18. At that time, these employees will withdraw their services if no settlement is reached on a new collective agreement.

While this is disappointing news for our students and employees, we all share the hope that both sides will continue to pursue a reasonable agreement and a walkout can be avoided.

As news becomes available, we will provide you updates by email and on MySeneca. In the meantime, please visit the College Employer Council website for the latest information on this announcement.
