

Students inspire innovation and design during competition

Published 5/5/2022 by Stephanie Conte

Students inspire innovation and design during competition

Innovative and alluring event designs were highlighted at Seneca's annual Inspired Spaces.

The virtual competition, showcased 13 tabletop creations from the Event Management - Creative Design graduate certificate program. Over the past eight months students were challenged to conceptualize and design an event concept, including developing a theme, sourcing vendors and pitching their ideas to faculty and industry professionals.

The event was hosted by graduate Brandon Zakkai and was supported by Seneca's Photography diploma program and the Event & Media Production diploma program.

Congratulations to the winning students:

- Gold — Sara Medina's San Summer-Grino Brunch
- Silver — Victoria Di Carlo's Dior x Fashion of Florals
- Bronze — Brenton Robinson's Space X & Nasa – Take Me to the Moon

Check out some of the glamorous designs.

0000000000

tags : student-news