

Six Seneca students receive CCAA Academic All-Canadian award

Published 5/17/2022 by Stephanie Conte

Six Seneca student athletes are recipients of the Canadian Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) 2021-222 Academic All-Canadian award.

The award is the CCAA's most prestigious student-athlete honour. It is given out to individuals who demonstrate a commitment to academic success and athletic achievement.

We are #SenecaProud of the following athletes:

Badminton

- Tessa Liu – Flight Services – Operations & Cabin Management diploma program

Men's soccer

- Atif Ali – Honours Bachelor of Technology – Software Development program
- Nick Spittle – Business diploma program
- Aaron Toniolo – Mechanical Engineering Technology – Building Sciences advanced diploma program

Men's volleyball

- Abel Shen – Computer Programming diploma program

Women's soccer

- Alessia Da Silva – Early Childhood Education diploma program

Read more about this athletic honour.

tags : student-news