

Kick off Pride Month and share your story with the Seneca community

Published 5/26/2022 by Shona Dias

Seneca will be celebrating Pride month and National Indigenous History Month in June. As we begin to prepare for upcoming events and initiatives, we invite students and employees to share their stories and lived experiences with the Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Office. With your permission, these stories will be shared on Seneca's communication channels.

To share your story, please complete and submit the online form by Thursday, June 9

Kick-off of Maamwi miinwaa gdaa'aami

Friday, Jun. 3 — 1:00 p.m.

Join us for the kick-off of Pride Month with our Pride flag raising. The kick-off will include our annual flag raising by President Agnew, Indigenous teachings, stories and celebration. We look forward to coming together again with the Seneca community.
