

Graduating Students' Virtual Career Launch Day

Published 7/7/2022 by Stephanie Conte

Seneca students in the last two semesters of their programs are invited to participate in a special series of virtual workshops and events to help launch their careers on Thursday, July 14 from 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

- get your foot in the door – prepare for success with workshops on networking, resumés and job search skills
- ace the interview – ready yourself for job interviews with virtual interview practice and feedback
- build on your credential – sessions to explore diploma to degree pathway options and opportunities to build on your Seneca credential
- attend a special information session – hosted by the Ministry of Labour, Training and Skills Development

More information is available on the space.

tags : student-news