

An international journey of friendship and logistics for two sisters

Published 8/18/2022 by Tiffany Hsieh

Whether it involves getting a mining truck to the Northwest Territories or receiving an oversized cargo coming from Germany, Seneca graduates Georgina and Karina Perez Perez help companies move just about anything from anywhere.

The sisters and best friends are both winners of the Canadian International Freight Forwarders Association's Young Logistics Professional \(YLP\) Award. This September, they are headed to Korea for the FIATA International Federation of Freight Forwarders Associations' World Congress.

Read the full story

tags : feature-stories