Compulsory (Essential) Ancillary Fees:

Compulsory ancillary fees are mandatory fees that a student is required to pay – in addition to tuition fees – to enrol in or successfully complete any ministry-funded course. These fees are regulated by the Compulsory Ancillary Fee Protocol Committee at Seneca. Once agreed upon and approved, these fees are mandatory and charged to all students unless otherwise stated.

Academic Appeals:

Students who launch a formal academic appeal are required to pay a non-refundable $25 fee for each level of appeal. The fee covers all matters under appeal.

Late Fees:

Should a student be permitted to pay fees after the dates specified by Seneca (see section C), a $150 late payment fee will be assessed for each infraction. Students who do not register on the dates assigned by the college will pay a $100 late registration fee for each infraction.

Late Testing Fees:

Tests given on the published date are free of charge to new Seneca students. There is a late testing fee of $55.

Other Transcript Fee:

There is a charge of $10. plus $1.30 (HST) per Transcripts.

Parking Charges:

Limited parking space is available at Seneca and parking charges are assessed on a daily basis.

Supplemental Examinations:

The supplemental examination fee is $15 and is non-refundable.
