Each year, Seneca offers millions of dollars in scholarships, bursaries and other awards based on both academic achievement and financial need. Their values range from $50 to $5,000.

Scholarships are awarded based on academic achievement, while bursaries are awarded for financial need. Some awards are open to all students while other awards are offered only to students in specific programs.:

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for an award, scholarship or bursary, you must be a Seneca student.

You must also meet the specific eligibility requirements outlined for each award. For example, scholarships are awarded based on academic achievement. This means that you must meet the minimum grade requirement to be eligible for the award.

Bursaries are awarded based on financial need. This means that you must meet the requirements for the specific bursary program to be eligible.

In addition, there are some awards that are open to all students, while some are offered only to students in specific programs.
