Maryam Ghodsirad is a graduate from Seneca's Animation diploma and holds a BA, Architectural Engineering and a MA in illustration. Throughout her time at Seneca, she focused on her 3D skills and gained knowledge in areas such as graphic design, cinematography and fine arts. As an artist, she is inspired by fiction and merges digital and traditional 3D techniques with new forms of contemporary expressions of art. Maryam loves to create art and make things move on screen; it can move people and further impact their lives.
