RE: Seneca's next Strategic Plan – this week's question

Over the past several weeks, we've been gathering input from inside and outside of Seneca for our next Strategic Plan. Thank you to all who have provided your input. It's been terrific to hear from so many students.

The last online question we're asking is about you. Please take a few minutes and let us know your thoughts about the student experience. Here is the link to provide your answer.

Thank you.
